Dr. Lincoln D. Gomez is a distinguished partner at Gomez Coffie Law, a premier law firm in Aruba specializing in aviation, corporate, real estate, and intellectual property law. With over 27 years of experience, Lincoln provides expert legal counsel to a diverse range of clients, including governments, state-owned enterprises, banks, aircraft leasing companies, intellectual property holders, and the hospitality sector.

An internationally acclaimed author and columnist, Lincoln has published numerous books and articles on topics such as aircraft finance, labor law, constitutional law, real estate, and competition law.

His works are recognized for their depth and multilingual accessibility.

Lincoln holds two advanced LL.M. degrees: International Tax & Financial Services from the Thomas Jefferson School of Law and Corporate Law from the Universiteit van Aruba. Additionally, he has bachelor's degrees in Biology and Chemistry from Saint Leo University and diplomas from the Wharton School of Business. In 2024, Cavalla International University honored him with an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Law. Lincoln is fluent in English, Dutch, Spanish, and his native Papiamentu and conversant in French and academic Latin.
